

LAXAI, a leading Contract Research Organization based in U.S. and India providing integrated services to the global life science market across the Drug Discovery and Development spectrum, has entered into a strategic partnership with the Biomedical Division of AMAR International (AMAR), a Washington, D.C. based leading contractor to the United States Government in the areas of life science program management and product development. Naren Mallakunta, CEO of LAXAI commented “We are excited to enter into this strategic relationship with AMAR which will enable us to offer cost competitive value added services to the US Federal Agencies in the areas of Drug Discovery and Development”.

Dr. John Prakash, Senior Vice President and Chief Scientific Officer of AMAR International stated, “AMAR is delighted to have Laxai as a strategic partner. Laxai’s resources and experience in Drug Discovery and Development will allow AMAR to augment its existing program management, scientific and regulatory expertise with a full spectrum of technical capabilities to support our clients’ needs.”

The LAXAI-AMAR collaboration would be focused on Clinical Research and other Drug Discovery & Development opportunities. Teams from both the companies will work together on proposal development, bidding and execution, leveraging LAXAI's expertise in these areas in the life science industry and AMAR’s expertise as a leading Federal contractor since 2004 in the life science program management and product development for the U.S. Federal Agencies. This joint alliance in the below mentioned areas will provide the ability for both the teams to work jointly on projects awarded by the NCI, NIH, CDC, FDA, DOD and other Federal Agencies:

- Biostatistics
- Data Management
- SAS Programming
- Drug Safety
- Pharmacovigilance
- Regulatory Compliance
- Medical Writing
- Medicinal Chemistry
- Process R&D and Analytical Services
- Custom Synthesis
- Program Management
- Market Research
- Behavioral Sciences Programs using SPSS
- Teleform Development and Survey Research Studies for Behavioral Sciences
